COMMISSION
of
Irvine H. Page Young Investigator Award
Award Selection Committee

Council on Arteriosclerosis, Thrombosis and Vascular Biology

- Purpose: To recognize investigators in arteriosclerosis and/or vascular biology in the formative years of their careers who have the potential to become future leaders in cardiovascular research.
- Reports To: ATVB Leadership Committee
- Membership: 5-7
The Committee shall consist of a Chair, a vice chair, and 3-5 members. At least one member should be a past Page Award recipient. The Vice Chair becomes the next Chair of the committee upon completion of the term of the current Chair.
- Method of Selection: The Chair shall appoint members. The Chair may seek advice from other committee members regarding appointment of new members. The Chair should strive to seek balance on the committee with regard to research expertise (i.e., arteriosclerosis, vascular biology), academic rank, gender, and inclusion of past Page Award recipients.
- Terms of Service: Committee terms shall be for two years, and shall begin and end with the AHA fiscal year (July-June). Terms shall be staggered to ensure continuity. Members may be re-appointed for one additional term.
- Member Commitment: The Committee shall review all applications in the spring and select finalists who will present their work at the Spring ATVB meeting. The Committee will select a winner after the presentations at the Spring ATVB meeting.
- Committee Responsibilities:
- Overseeing policies, procedures and administration of the Page Award.
 - Reviewing the award criteria and policies and making recommendations to the Executive Committee for changes/revisions as may be necessary.
 - Reviewing abstracts, manuscripts, and curricula vitae to select the award finalists.
