Dear Colleagues,

The American Heart Association’s annual meeting, the Epidemiology and Prevention | Lifestyle and Cardiometabolic Health Conference, is happening March 1-4. Join me in person, in Chicago to take part in this 3-day Green World, Heart-Healthy Living experience for opportunities to connect and engage, grow your career, and learn the latest on emerging CV Science on Food Sustainability and environmental health.

By registering for and attending #EPILifestyle22, you will have access to leaders in the field and hear the latest discoveries in cardiovascular health and prevention of heart disease and stroke. Experience noteworthy programming designed to keep you up to date with a variety of CV categories focusing on emerging cardiovascular science concerning food sustainability and environmental health.

Can’t miss sessions at this year’s meeting include:

- Keynote Session: Air Pollution and CVD
  Speaker: Sanjay Rajagopalan, MD, FACC, FAHA
  Chief, Cardiovascular Medicine
  University Hospitals, Harrington Heart & Vascular Institute
- Keynote Session: Global Urban Health
  Speaker: Ana V. Diez Roux, MD, PhD, MPH
  Dean's Office, Epidemiology and Biostatistics, Urban Health
  Drexel Dornsife School of Public Health
- American Society For Preventive Cardiology (ASPC) Debate
- Hot off the Press Sessions
- NEW: Face to Face Roundtable Sessions
- Moderated and ePoster Sessions
- Connection Corners

To learn more and register, visit their website at https://professional.heart.org/epilifestylesessions

Thank you for your consideration and I look forward to connecting with you in March.

Sincerely,

[AHA/EPI Ambassador Name]