AHA Scientific Sessions Virtual Experience: On Demand Session Moderators- What You Should Know

We are delighted to have you on the program for Scientific Sessions 2021. Below you will find key information related to your role(s) at AHA 2021 for the On Demand session program. This is not a live event, so you have flexibility as to when you log in during Sessions and participate in the online discussion around these presentations.

Your role is to ask speakers questions about their presentations through the AHA Scientific Sessions mobile app. Please access the Participant Portal to view your On demand role(s).

Follow these steps to fulfill your role:

Prior to the event

1. Register for the event. Be sure to register by Friday, November 5th.
2. Download the AHA Scientific Sessions Mobile App
3. Share your participation via social media. Access the speaker tool kit for images for social media.

During the event

1. View your session on anytime on Saturday, November 13 on Scientific Sessions virtual event platform. You will receive an email from email@heart.org on Friday, November 12th with the link to access the event.
2. You can search under the program agenda by the session title to find your session.
3. After you review you view the session, you will go to the session in the mobile app to post questions for the speakers to answer.
