

American Heart Association.

Strategic Network Presentation Session Monday, September 23, 2024

3:15 – 3:20	Welcome &amp; Introduction	Shawna D. Nesbitt, MD, FAHA HERN – Prevention of Hypertension OAC Member
3:20 – 3:30	Bunmi Ogungbe, PhD, MPH, RN Prevention of Hypertension HERN, Johns Hopkins University	Implementing a Food is Medicine Strategy for Hypertension in the Community: The THRIVE Project
3:30 – 3:40	McCall Miller, BA Rural Health HERN, Cincinnati Children's Hospital	Partnering with Community Members to Co-Design a SHD Program to Improve Care for American Indians
3:40 – 3:50	Samuel Byiringiro, PhD, MS, RN Diversity in Clinical Trials SFRN Johns Hopkins University	Assessing Levels of Community Health Center Engagement in Hypertension and Diabetes Clinical Trials in the United States – A systematic Review
3:50 – 4:00	Ramona Olvera, PhD Maternal & Infant Health HERN, The Ohio State University	Physician Perspectives on Barriers to Screening For and Addressing Social Needs During the Prenatal Period
4:00 – 4:10	Angela Spencer, PhD, MBA Rural Health HERN, University of Washington	Developing a global-to-local innovation implementation toolkit for cardiovascular disease prevention and care using human-centered design with primary care clinics in the rural mountain west.
4:10 – 4:20	Allen Sanyi, DO Diversity in Clinical Trials SFRN Emory University School of Medicine	Measuring Representativeness in Clinical Trials: A Comprehensive Analysis
4:20 – 4:30	Denita Lindsey, MD Maternal & Infant Health HERN, University of Alabama at Birmingham	The Association Between Social Distancing and Neonatal Mortality During the COVID 19 Pandemic in the United States by Social Risk Factors
4:30 – 4:40	Judah Kreinbrook, BS, EMT-P Rural Health HERN, Duke University	Intraarrest Transport of Out of Hospital Cardiac Arrest: a Mixed Methods Proposal to Support Drone as First Responder Programs in Rural America
4:40 – 4:50	Sarah Slone, PhD, DNP Prevention of Hypertension HERN, Johns Hopkins University	“Context is Everything”: Lessons learned from engaging health systems in a hybrid 1 effectiveness implementation science study to prevent and control hypertension
4:50 – 5:00	Kayla Torres, MPH Maternal & Infant Health HERN, Connection Health University of Alabama at Birmingham	Bridging the Gap: A Perinatal Community Health Worker Training Program in Alabama
5:00 – 5:10	Juliana Garcia, PhD Diversity in Clinical Trials SFRN Washington State University	Research is Ceremony: Relationships are Foundational
5:10 – 5:30	Session Q&amp;A Panel	