

Subject line: Submit your science to #EPI LIFESTYLE22 by October 13

Dear Colleagues,

The American Heart Association's annual meeting, EPI/Lifestyle Scientific Sessions 2022 is currently accepting abstracts. This year's meeting offers over 40 abstract categories and the opportunity to grow your professional network by presenting your accepted abstracts in-person in Chicago, IL.

Share the story of your science on the global stage and connect with colleagues from around the globe this March 1-4.

Categories available to submit to:

- Preventive Cardiology
- Cardiometabolic Health and Disorders
- Environmental Exposures
- Promoting and Measuring Health Behaviors
- LGBTQ Health

To learn more and submit your science, visit their website at <https://professional.heart.org/epilifestylesessions>

Thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely,
